Dear Jodi:

Hope you, Susan, Michael and all other Freedom Singers are well. I've got a very exciting project underway and I'd like to invite you and th Freedom Singers to be part of it. We're producing a CD called ROCHESTER SINGS in Many Voices, ManyVisions. The CD will feature many different cultures and musical styles all performing unique renditions of the MVMV theme song. A tentative list of participants is enclosed ranging from indigenous voices in Seneca to Rochester's most recent arrivals, a refugee choir singing in reggae style! The CD also features Ernestine Dillard whose beautiful voice will open the 1996 World Olympics. It would be an honor to have the Freedom Singers be a part of this project, too.

All recording will be done at Dynamic Recording and must be completed by August 15th to meet our October 26 release date to coincide with National Make A Difference Day. If you want to join us in making a difference, call Dave and Jackie Kaspersin to set up a record date:

TEL: 621-6270

Dynamic is offering th audio recording for the CD free of charge as their contribution to this project. The money raised from the sales of the CD will go for diversity education in our community and will be administered through the Greater Rochester Community of Churches in their Beyond Racism Project.

It would be great to have the Freedom Singers represent the gay and lesbian community....who better than you to help build a world which harmoniously celebrates all of its parts!

I'm enclosing the music again to refresh your memory. Call Dave or Jackie to set up a record time, the sooner the better!

Regards from
One in humanity,

Charlotte Clarke

Dear Jodi - a review ☺

Sunday mornings at 9:00, WOKR airs a locally produced television program celebrating diversity. The multi cultural , public affairs show is called Many Voices, Many Visions and celebrates our community's diversity in terms of race, ethnicity, creed, age, gender and ability.

We would like to invite you to play a part in it!

Enclosed is a copy of the show's musical theme, a short and simple song summing up the program's philosophy, namely, that although we come in different colors, cultures and creeds, underneath our differences, we are all the same.

One of the ways we communicate this message is by inviting different individuals and groups to perform their rendition of the show's theme song. Each week the show features a different version of "Many Voices, Many Visions." The name of the individual or group is printed on the screen.

We invite young and old, individuals and groups, rap, jazz, gospel, folk, choir and chorus to sing our theme song. We welcome instrumental versions, ethnic versions in special costumes, languages and dialects. All are welcome. Variations are infinite!

If you are interested in being a musical part of Many voices, Many Visions, please call us and we can discuss the next step. Individuals and small groups will be videotaped here at WOKR's studios. Larger groups will be videotaped on location where they rehearse or perform. We believe that diversity is beautiful, so please feel free to be creative with your arrangement of our song. You may change the key and tempo, but please maintain the integrity of the words.

If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to call. We look forward to your participation in Rochester's celebration of diversity on WOKR's Many Voices, Many Visions!

Sincerely yours,

Charlotte Clarke
